

Please check bird mortality and communication tower issues and how they correlate. It is important that we take care and respect migratory birds' needs and that environmental reviews are conducted in order to make any changes necessary or possible to decrease any negative impact on these birds. Thank you.